- Students must be enrolled in grades 9 thru 12 and attend a local district school, approved charter school, private school, or homeschool (whose custodial parent or legal guardian is a resident of Utah)
- Carson Smith Scholarship recipients are eligible for this program.
- Students residing in residential treatment centers may participate in this program if they enroll in the school district where the center is located.
- Foreign exchange students may enroll in this program while enrolled in a Utah Public or Private school.
- Students in grades 6-8 enrolled in a secondary environment who are prepared for high-school-level work and have an Early Graduation plan allowing for acceleration of high school graduation may participate
- Students may register for courses without the necessity of first registering with a public school.
- Students can take up to five online courses for 2017-18 school year (equivalent of full-year courses)

- Students get to choose their own courses and course providers. NOT their primary school of enrollment.
- Choose from multiple online course options and multiple online course providers
- Online courses are high quality, rich and interactive, fully accredited and part of the public school system
- Teachers are certified and highly qualified
- Online courses count towards graduation and are part of the students SEOP (counselor led education plan that tracks credits for graduation and post-secondary goals)
- Students customize their education - online course selections become part of their overall class schedule
- Broad offering of online course options - core subjects, electives, AP courses, foreign languages and everything in between
- NO COST to students
